

The Daily Courant.

Thursday, September 23. 1703.

From the Hague Gazette, dated Sept. 20.

Warsaw, September 11.

Some days ago the King had a long Conference with the Cardinal Primate; and receiv'd the Submission of the Starost of Samoyra who has quitted the Party of the Sapiehaes. The Army of the Crown is marching towards Ermerland to prevent the Enemies raising Contributions in that Country. The King of Sweden will hear of no Accommodation till he is possess'd of Thorn, which Place he is preparing to Bombard. The Commissioners appointed on the Part of the Republick to negotiate the Peace, continue in this City. The Confederates in Great Poland assembled on the 27th of last Month at Greda, where they were met by the Sapiehaes, the Palatine Pornanski and the Starost Babryski. The Gentlemen of Great Poland who are in his Majesty's Interest, have sent him a List of the Confederates, and are urgent for Succours to enable them to act against them and the Swedes.

Dantzick, Sept. 9. On the 2d the Swedish Commander in Graudentz took the Keys of the City from the Magistrates, who had kept them till then. The same day 30 Vessels laden with Ammunitions for the Swedish Camp before Thorn, sail'd from thence up the Vistula, but the Wind having been contrary ever since, they cannot be got far on their Way. They write from Poland, that the Saxon and Lithuanian Troops had attack'd General Reinschild in Great Poland, and worsted him, killing 400 Swedes and taking 40 Prisoners with a Collonel, and that 2 Troops of the Confederated Poles were entirely defeated in that Action.

From the Hague Gazette, dated Sept. 24.

Warsaw, Sept. 19. Preparations are making for the Departure of the King from Wiasdow, but 'tis not known yet whither his Majesty will go. Signior Pignatelli the Pope's Nuncio has had his Audience of leave, and within a fortnight or three Weeks will return to Italy. We know not yet what to think of the Peace; but in all appearance it will not be brought about very speedily, seeing, as we are well assur'd, the King of Sweden insists peremptorily, that his Polish Majesty absolutely renounce his Alliance with the Czar. However, the Commissioners of the Republick have sent the following Terms of Accommodation to Count Piper. 1. That the Peace of Oliva, as well as all the other Treaties made with Sweden at any time whatsoever, shall be observ'd, renew'd, and confirm'd, by new Oaths on both sides. 2. That immediately upon the conclusion of the Peace, all the Forreign Troops shall march out of the Kingdom, and not return on any Pretence whatever. 3. That the Republick will hinder the present King of Poland, and those who shall come after him, from entering into any Forreign Alliance without her Consent; and in Case such Alliance should be made, the Republick will not look upon her self to be at all oblig'd or concern'd in it. 4. The Republick will keep a watchful Eye, that neither the present King, nor any who shall succeed him, shall send his own or other Forreign Troops, into the Kingdom of Sweden nor the Territories depending on it, either by Sea or Land; and no Troops whatsoever who would make War with Sweden, shall be allow'd passage over the Territories of the Republick. 5. The Republick will not suffer the present King, to furnish the declared Enemies of Sweden, either with Men, Money or other Succours. 6. Care shall be taken that no Subject of the Republick shall, unknown to her, meddle in the like Affairs for the future; and if any one should, he shall be punish'd according to the Laws of the Republick, with Confiscation of his Estate and Honours. 7. To make good these Articles, and others that may be agreed on, the States of the Republick oblige themselves in case they are infring'd, to joyn their Arms and Forces with the Party injur'd against the Infraction; that Peace and mutual Security may be preserv'd. The Deputies of the Republick that are at Caminiec are to confer about regulating the Limits with the Commissioners of the Grand Signior on the 26th instant. The Report that was spread of a Battle between the Swedes and the Poles is not confirm'd. General Reinschild is posted so advantageously, that it will be impossible for the Saxon and Lithuanian Troops to attack him with Success.

Dantzick, Sep. 12. 6000 of the Swedes are marching towards Chielma to put the Country under Contribution; they march in 3 Bodies to endeavour to surprize the Troops of Oginski and the Muscovites. This City having been assur'd by some Neighbouring Potentates of their Protection in case the Swedes should attack it, our Magistrates are determin'd not to comply with Count Steinbock's Demands, and we prepare to defend our selves vigorously. They write from before Thorn, that the Swedes have made ready their Batteries against that Place, prepar'd 15000 Fascines, and will begin to Bombard it as soon as the 30 Vessels that are gone up the Vistula from Graudentz with Artillery and Ammunitions are arriv'd. They flatter themselves that the Inhabitants when they have seen a few of their Houses set on fire by the Bombs will mutiny against the Saxon Garrison, and oblige them to surrender the Place. We had lately a report that the King of Sweden and General Reinschild together had given the Saxons and Lithuanians a great defeat and kill'd 6000 of them; but hearing no further of it, we conclude it to be false.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Sep. 25.

Warsaw, Sep. 11. The Army of the Crown continues on the other side the Vistula; and 'tis said the Lithuanian Troops are returning back from Great Poland, and that the Saxons are marching towards the Waywodships of Cracow and Wolhinta.

Plymouth, Sept. 19. This day came in the Maryland Merchant of and for Plymouth from Virginia, who came out from thence with the York and one Man of War more, and about 70 Merchant Ships 7 Weeks ago, but was soon parted from the Fleet by bad Weather, and afterwards taken by a French Privateer of 34 Guns, and ransom'd for 1350 l.
